

THE SUPERHOLIDAYS

Four kids use the power of giving, love, thanks, and knowledge to battle their next door neighbor, Evil Jack.

THEME SONG by THE SCHOOL OF ROCK.

The Super Holidays

Press Kit

Log Line: Using the gift of giving, love, thanks and knowledge, four kids try to maintain peace in the town of Harbor Lights, while battling their nemesis Evil Jack, who happens to be the kid next-door.

Synopsis: In the short film “Summer Break,” Evil Jack tries to ruin The Super Holidays first day of summer break by building a weather machine that will make it rain. When his attempts do not have the desired effect, Evil Jack decides to hold an evil bake sale. When the inhabitants of Harbor Lights eat the cupcakes they turn into evil zombies that destroy the city. The kids must use their powers to save the town from total destruction and restore the residents to normal. That’s not much of a summer break at all!

Producers

Kevan Peterson: (Writer/Producer) Kevan C. Peterson is a writer/producer located in Hollywood, CA. He is the creator of The Super Holidays and the President of Fromage Pictures, Inc. He recently wrote the film "One Lucky Dog," inspired by an actual dachshund race held each year by the world's largest hot dog chain, Wienerschnitzel. He has performed as a stand up comic at several venues throughout Los Angeles, including The Comedy Store, The Improv and The Ice House. He is currently adapting the Comic book “X Diary,” with Oscar nominated director Kalman Apple attached.

Darrel Bowen: (Producer/Character Design) Darrel has worked on The Simpsons TV show, movie and ride for Universal Studios. His extensive career in animation has included working on such top name shows as “Pinky and the Brain,” “Animaniacs,” and “The Tick.” He is President of Darrel Bowen Media, Inc and founder of Rocketfist.

Bryon Carson: (Animator / Associate Producer) Bryon served as Director on “The Golden Blaze,” the first feature film to be done in Flash Animation, which won the Children’s Jury Award at the Chicago International Children’s Festival. He also served as director on “Undercover Brother, The Animated Series,” which was later turned into the film “Undercover Brother,” for Universal.

Cast

Nickie Bryar: (Nicholas / Valentine) Since recording voices for The Super Holidays, Nickie has gone on to work on multiple episodes of “Family Guy,” voice the role of Maggie in “Curious George 2,” and play two characters in “Einstein Pals.”

Ellie Baer: (Evil Jack / Turkey) Ellie has worked as a producer for VH1: All Access and Behind the Music. She has also provided her voice to Daisy in Disney musical. In addition to her voice work and producer duties on various projects, Ellie also works as a composer.

Jeff Coatney: (Professor Holiday) Jeff is a concept artist, product designer and filmmaker based in Los Angeles. Focused primarily in the entertainment industry, Jeff has worked in movies, television, theme parks, and advertising. Jeff provides creativity, design and innovation to some of the biggest entertainment companies in the world like Disney and Universal, as well as dozens of other companies.

Wendy Wynman-Engels: (Ms. Lovely / Columbus / Elderly Woman) Wendy has a vocal range that has seen her take on a number of diverse roles, as evidenced by the fact that in The Super Holidays she plays a middle-aged woman, an elderly woman and a young boy. She was the voice of Betty Boop for a recent video game and continues to build her catalog of voices. Wendy previously worked as a magazine editor in Italy.

Storyboard

Dan Kubat: Dan’s wide range of artistic talent has allowed him to work on such diverse shows as “Sonic the Hedgehog,” “Spaceballs: The Animated Series,” and “Back at the Barnyard.” His Celebrity Artwork featuring such notable names as BB King, Elvis and the Rolling Stones is available on his website danoartgallery.com.